

Amazing NNPS employees!

If you are an Instructional Assistant, Substitute Teacher, Family Engagement Specialist, or other degree holding NNPS employee that would like to become a licensed teacher, NNPS has an opportunity for you!

We are recruiting talented prospective teacher candidates for our NNPS Emerging Teacher Program. This program is a collaboration with Old Dominion University's career switcher program and could transition current employees into licensed teaching jobs beginning as soon as this Fall.

ODU Summer Cohort 2022 classes begin June 20, 2022. Click Here for upcoming information sessions: <https://www.odu.edu/cepd/career-switcher/prospective-switchers/learn-more> .

Applicants will be accepted into the NNPS/ODU cohort where tuition will be paid by NNPS. To apply, you must be able to meet ODU career switcher program requirements. Complete the Emerging Teacher Application if you are interested in becoming an Emerging Teacher and return to kimberly.Hammond@nn.k12.va.us .

A group of applicants will then be chosen to conduct a final interview and asked to apply to ODU's career switcher program. Find Emerging Teacher application under Tuition & Growth Opportunities on the NNPS Human Resources page.
